

Grammar Practice

Name Class Date

12.8 Comparative and Superlative Adverbs

Key Information

The comparative form of an adverb compares two actions. The superlative form of an adverb compares more than two actions. For shorter adverbs, the endings -er and -est are added to make the comparative and superlative forms. For longer adverbs, the words more and most are added.

I could not imagine anyone acting more courageously.
Whoever runs fastest will win the race.

The words less and least are used to form the negative comparative and superlative.

Those who approached the problem less creatively missed the solution.

■ A. Identifying Comparative and Superlative Adverbs

Underline the correct adverb form in parentheses. Then write whether the form is comparative or superlative.

1. Craig works on his typing (more, most) enthusiastically than Bernice works.

2. Who can throw the discus (farthest, most far)? _____
3. It is raining (more, most) heavily today than it was yesterday. _____
4. The stock is changing the (more, most) rapidly of all stocks available today. _____
5. That cold medicine works (better, more well) for me than any other medicine I have taken. _____
6. The wood pile is stacked (higher, highest) in October, before winter begins. _____

Grammar Practice

Name Class Date

12.8

Comparative and Superlative Adverbs

Key Information

The comparative form of an adverb compares two actions. The superlative form of an adverb compares more than two actions. For shorter adverbs, the endings -er and -est are added to make the comparative and superlative forms. For longer adverbs, the words more and most are added.

I could not imagine anyone acting more courageously.
Whoever runs fastest will win the race.

The words less and least are used to form the negative comparative and superlative.

Those who approached the problem less creatively missed the solution.

A. Identifying Comparative and Superlative Adverbs

Underline the correct adverb form in parentheses. Then write whether the form is comparative or superlative.

1. Craig works on his typing (more, most) enthusiastically than Bernice works.

2. Who can throw the discus (farthest, most far)? _____
3. It is raining (more, most) heavily today than it was yesterday. _____
4. The stock is changing the (more, most) rapidly of all stocks available today. _____
5. That cold medicine works (better, more well) for me than any other medicine I have taken. _____
6. The wood pile is stacked (higher, highest) in October, before winter begins. _____

Grammar Practice

Name

Class

Date

12.8

Comparative and Superlative Adverbs

Key Information

The comparative form of an adverb compares two actions. The superlative form of an adverb compares more than two actions. For shorter adverbs, the endings -er and -est are added to make the comparative and superlative forms. For longer adverbs, the words more and most are added.

I could not imagine anyone acting more courageously.
Whoever runs fastest will win the race.

The words less and least are used to form the negative comparative and superlative.
Those who approached the problem less creatively missed the solution.

■ A. Identifying Comparative and Superlative Adverbs

Underline the correct adverb form in parentheses. Then write whether the form is comparative or superlative.

1. Craig works on his typing (more, most) enthusiastically than Bernice works.

2. Who can throw the discus (farthest, most far)? _____
3. It is raining (more, most) heavily today than it was yesterday. _____
4. The stock is changing the (more, most) rapidly of all stocks available today. _____
5. That cold medicine works (better, more well) for me than any other medicine I have taken. _____
6. The wood pile is stacked (higher, highest) in October, before winter begins. _____

Grammar Practice

Name Class Date

12.8 Comparative and Superlative Adverbs

Key Information

The comparative form of an adverb compares two actions. The superlative form of an adverb compares more than two actions. For shorter adverbs, the endings -er and -est are added to make the comparative and superlative forms. For longer adverbs, the words more and most are added.

I could not imagine anyone acting more courageously.
Whoever runs fastest will win the race.

The words less and least are used to form the negative comparative and superlative.

Those who approached the problem less creatively missed the solution.

■ A. Identifying Comparative and Superlative Adverbs

Underline the correct adverb form in parentheses. Then write whether the form is comparative or superlative.

1. Craig works on his typing (more, most) enthusiastically than Bernice works.

2. Who can throw the discus (farthest, most far)? _____
3. It is raining (more, most) heavily today than it was yesterday. _____
4. The stock is changing the (more, most) rapidly of all stocks available today. _____
5. That cold medicine works (better, more well) for me than any other medicine I have taken. _____
6. The wood pile is stacked (higher, highest) in October, before winter begins. _____